

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Planning and Organizing

How the Program is Organized	Page 1
Two Most Important Things to Do	Page 3
Market Organization	Page 4
Physician Responsibilities.	Page 5
Coordinating Physician for the Market.	Page 5
Hospital Managing Physician.	Page 6
Hospital Marketing Manager Responsibilities.	Page 8
Timeline of Activities	Page 10
Timeline for Your Hospital	Page 15

Chapter 2: Conducting the Screening

Suggested Procedures for Day-of-Screening – Step-by-Step.	Page 22
Selecting a Screening Site	Page 23
Sample Staffing Checklist.	Page 24
Sample Day-of-Screening Equipment Checklist	Page 26
Sample Food Order List.	Page 29
Preparation	Page 30
Patient Flow Chart	Page 31
Screening Follow-Up Procedures.	Page 32

Chapter 3: Publicizing the Program

Two Most Important Things to Do	Page 33
Marketing Tactics	Page 34
Media Relations	Page 36
Tips for Spokespersons for Successful Media Interviews.	Page 37

Chapter 4: SIR Recommended Protocol and Guidelines

Chapter 5: Program Materials

Forms Used in the Program	Page 45
Pre-Screening Material	Page 52
Patient Appointment and Other Material	Page 55
Promotional Material	Page 61
Media Relations Material	Page 64
Post-Screening Material	Page 77

Chapter 6: AAA Screening

Materials for AAA Screening	Page 84
Forms Used for AAA Screening	Page 92
Media Relations Material for AAA	Page 95

Chapter 7: Venous Disease Screening

Chapter 8: Stroke/Carotid Disease Screening

Appendices

A. Partnerships	D. The Ankle Brachial Index
B. Sample Site Floor Plans and Layouts	E. Sample Promotional Materials from Sites
C. Making the Screening Appointment Sample Pre-Screening Questionnaire	F. Frequently Asked Questions and Troubleshooting